LETTERS FROM OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

1st. Lt. E. L. Waterman, (11181496, 253d Engr. C. Bn., APO 17114, c/o Postmaster, New York, New York.)

I'm writing in a tent - a whiskey case for a table - and for a candle - a can of G.I. shoe waterproofing paste, melted, with a piece of string floating in it for a wick.

I'm now serving with a Combat Engineer battalion. There is nothing to say of myself that would not be a restatement of the circumstances of millions of other Americans, so I'll just say I'm well, cheerful, and looking forward to going home.

Please remember me to my friends in Farm Credit and if possible, thru the Grapevine to those in the service.

Mary I. Kindred, (Slc(y), Box 45, U. S. Submarine Base, New London, Conn.)

This place is real Navy - I've seen more Chief petty officers here in one hour than in all the rest of my Navy career. These men have spent years in the Navy.

Today I was transferred to the medical research, and am anxious to get started on what promises to be an interesting place. I'm very pleased.

There are only about six of us Waves who don't live around here close, so on week ends the barracks are certainly quiet. I'm the only one here from Texas, and it's inevitable that I'm called "Tex." Also "the Lone Ranger" and "Hi ho Silver," etc. At the office they called me bos'n because I am daring enough to drink Navy coffee without sugar or cream. They say only a bos'n is that strong.

My best regard to you all.

1st Lt. Leland C. Geiss, (0686147 A.A.F.I.S. (B) Class 45-2, Sec. I, M.A.A.B. Midland, Texas.)

I had a wonderful time down at Miami Beach. Was then sent here. Can you believe it they are going to make an instructor out of me. Of all things - don't laugh. I asked for another tour of duty but they said I must be an instructor for awhile.

Please tell everyone hello for me.

Harry J. Schlick, (S2/c, 956-93-26, U. S. Navy 167 R. B. c/o Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif.)

This is my first stop here in the Southwest Pacific. We had a pleasant enough trip here but the details will have to remain a mystery until after this war.

Conditions are pretty good. Can't say very much for New Guinea - all hills and trees. Saw only one native and him from quite a distance.

It would be very nice if they would send us to Australia but things like that don't happen. I'll be seeing you - soon I hope.

Pvt. R. W. Saunders, (37228304, Co. "B" 63d Armd Inf. Bn. APO 261, c/o Postmaster, New York, New York.)

I'm in England. I've visited a few English towns and they are very picturesque. I drank some English beer, but it can't compare to ours. Give all the group my regards.

TOWN AND COUNTRY HIKE
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10

The hiking group will meet Sunday afternoon, December 10, at 2 p.m. in front of the Plaza Theater at 47th and Wyandotte Streets, for a 6-mile walk along Mill Creek Parkway to Fairway and back by way of Brush Creek. Wear old clothes and comfortable shoes with flat heels. Leader, Paul L. Repp.

Strictly Personal

Central Office Accounting. Theodora Stocklos is off for a 2 weeks' vacation with her soldier husband in Princeton, Mo....Blake Holmes parted from FCA on November 16 to accept a position with OEM..."Having a wonderful time seeing Detroit, New York, and Atlantic City," says Mollie Dubiner on a post card... Lucille Miller put away office duties for a week's vacation spent relaxing at home...Thanksgiving vacationists who traveled to nearby cities include Clarice Andrews to Howard, Kans., Pat Ross to Omaha, Rosella Reiff to Carroll, Iowa, and the Delbert Mehaffys who flew up to Iowa... Others who took some time off during the holiday week end but ate turkey at home in Kansas City include Waverly Haynes, Ardys Hagen, and Carlyn Dewey.

Cooperative. S. Y. McConnell is recuperating from an illness at his home...Hester Eads has returned from a 5 days' vacation at her home in Smithville, Mo....Linda Lou, tiny granddaughter of C. W. Wilson, was a recent visitor in the division.

Economic & Credit Research. E.C. Johnson of the Office of the Secretary in Washington, D. C., was a recent visitor in the division.

Emergency Crop & Feed Loan. WAC Ruth Clark, stationed on the Gold Coast of Africa, writes that in addition to enjoying her work as secretary to the Commanding Officer of the base, she is getting a big thrill over numerous trips around the base.

Examination. H. P. Mousel is anticipating the Christmas homecoming of his son, Richard, of the U. S. Marines, following receipt of a telegram announcing his arrival in the States after 20 months duty in the Southwest Pacific area... Eileen Fascher made a "flying trip" to her home in Kimball, S. D., for a 2 weeks' vacation...George Bartlett's office is vacant for a week while he vacations at home...On November 10, in the 10th and Francis Street Church of Christ, Oklahoma City, Okla., Dorothy Mills, formerly employed in the Verification Section, became the bride of Cpl. Stanley J. Davis, now stationed in Delhart, Texas with the Medical Detachment of the AAF... V. A. Bixler is enjoying an autumn vacation in Kansas City.

Finance & Accounts. Securities and Registrar Sections gathered together at lunch period on Thanksgiving Day for a delicious picnic spread...The holiday week end was spent by Delta Vaughn at her home in Wellington, Kans.; by Virginia Lee Davis with Clarice Andrews at her home in Howard, Kansas.; while Marjorie Wiss ate turkey and relaxed at her home in Kansas City.

Graphic. The Second Annual Thanksgiving Day dinner was held in the Second Floor Annex Club Diner, Thursday noon, November 23. Thirty-one healthy and hearty appetites did justice to a lavish menu consisting of roast turkey, dressing, gravy, toss salad, cranberry sauce, baked potatoes, bread, butter, celery, pumpkin and mince pie, and coffee.

Everyone busied himself eating, but after a while, between bites, enjoyed the friendly chatter and chuckles. Guests were Mr. Hemstreet and Mr. Piper.

There was a feeling of regret, however, because of the fact that this would be the last dinner in the Annex Club Diner.

Graphic's Thanksgiving
Mortgage Corporation Service. William Watt has returned from an eastern field trip...Eileen Stein discarded secretarial duties for the pleasures of a 2 weeks' Ohio vacation.

OUR WASHINGTON REPORTER

We hear that Mike Sofchak has been in the hospital with malaria but is better now...Janet and Bill Snyder announce the arrival of a new baby brother for little Billy...There is great speculation around CR&S and the Department of Agriculture as to why Joe Knapp was seated at the speakers' table with all the bigwigs at the Outlook Banquet the other night! We also hear that Larry Mann is having trouble convincing a certain hotel on his last field trip that he paid his bill. Sometime ask Leonard Conyers why the boys caught up on him with some of his football bets!

A. W. McKay writes us from Iran: "...Before we comparatively honest Americans got on the job it was customary to pay the personnel officers from 2000 to 3000 rials, depending on the importance of the post. This has been done away with, we hope, but there are still a number that think the good old days may come back and they hold up appointments as long as possible. Don't put this in the Grapevine; it might give KC ideas... Don't make me homesick talking about how good Washington looks just now. I am convinced that it would look good even on a hot July day. This is really desert country. What trees there are have been planted and are mostly poplars or similar softwood species...I have practically given up eating Iranian food, I just can't take it - with the exception of the soups which I enjoy."

COLD WEATHER FAILS TO DAUNT HIKERS

Undaunted by cloudy skies and the weather men's prediction of a cold day, seven farm credit hikers took the trip to Lawrence, Kansas, on Sunday, November 26. The group included Helen Baughman, Olive Boylan, Dorothy Dick, Eleanor Ferguson, Dorothy Mack, Marie Puhr, and Jean Sutter.

Veering somewhat from their usual routine, the hikers spent the day sightseeing, but they managed to get in a walk of a few miles to the University of Kansas and around its campus on Mount Oread.

The first stop was at Haskell Institute where two Indian girls acted as guides in a trip through the buildings and around the grounds. At the University of Kansas, the group spent some time in the Natural History Museum, one of the best in the Middle West, and in the Art Museum. (MP)

FINAL SESSION OF BRIDGE TOURNAMENT ON DECEMBER 8

The final session of the bridge tournament will be held on December 8; there will be no play on December 1. At the close of the fifth session on November 24, the five top scores were as follows: Robert McWilliams, 22,230; Marie Puhr, 18,720; Kathleen Thomas, 18,600; Alvina Preinkert, 18,160; and Pearl Ferguson, 17,450.

C. C. FAIRCHILD TEACHES PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS

On November 17, Professor C. C. Fairchild, head of the Department of Speech of the Kansas City Manual Training High School, inaugurated a series of five public speaking classes to be held on alternate Friday evenings in room 2203. Seventeen registrants have taken advantage of this opportunity to build vocabularies and create self-confidence.

The next class has been scheduled for December 8 in room 2203 at 8:30 p.m. Interested members will be welcome at the remaining four sessions at a reduced rate. For further information, call Hoyt Elkins on extension 32.

HELP CREDIT UNION HELP YOU

Our Credit Union is a cooperative. Each member must cooperate if the best service is to be rendered. Here's how to help. If you are applying for a loan leave your application in the Credit Union office before closing time, 3:30 p.m., on Wednesday. The Credit Committee meets on Thursday to pass on loans and checks are ready Friday. In an emergency applications can be put through at other times. But to keep our credit union operating smoothly you should anticipate your credit needs long enough in advance to have your application for a loan in the office by 3:30 Wednesday.

Home Service News

Lucille Achauer, Eleanor Ferguson, Olga Markham, Corrine Matter, Virginia Paine, and Sarah Schneider were among the uniformed guests at a dinner party held at the Continental Hotel November 27, where Kansas City's nurse-aides were praised enthusiastically by hospital supervisors, and urged by American Red Cross workers to give more time and to recruit other aides. The recent army call for 10,000 trained nurses means that aides and untrained volunteers must assume those duties. Daytime workers are especially needed. Housewives and mothers would all profit immeasurably by the course. Army nurse-aides, working under Civil Service, are also being sought to meet the need in veterans' hospitals. From FCA one of the first three such aides will work at Winter General in Topeka. We are justly proud of Corrine Matter for going into this vital work.

While 'thank-you' letters are being received from overseas for Christmas boxes from FCA already enjoyed, our committee is this week busily engaged in mailing packages to the service folk in the United States. A vote of real thanks is due Rose Fleming, Deane Ruth, Gladys Lytle, Helen Bailey, Tom Pritchard, Gardner Walker, R. H. Cawood, and Lawrence Hayden who helped to mail 96 boxes overseas and are now sending 124 to the service men and women here at home.

Uncle Sam really has use for the bonds being bought in the Sixth War Loan drive. Yes, with one $18.75 bond purchase, he can buy a "Walkie-Talkie," with ten a life float, and with fifty a jeep. It's gratifying to know your purchases help cover the cost of fighting ships to clear the seas, fighter planes to clear the skies, and land equipment which is rolling right up to Heinie's front door. Now is the time we cannot afford to let down.

The public is invited to attend the presentation of a 29-passenger bus to the Jackson County Red Cross Chapter by the Alpha Iota Sorority on Saturday, December 2, at 3:30 p.m. If the weather permits, the ceremony, in which FCA girls who are members of the Red Cross Motor Corps will participate, will be held on the mall in front of the Liberty Memorial. However, if the weather is inclement the ceremony will be held at Red Cross Headquarters.

Club Room Notes

The semiannual book sale of the club library opens on December 1. In order to make room for new books, all books that have not circulated for 6 months will be offered for sale, with the exception of the permanent collection of the library. Mysteries will sell for 35 cents; novels for 50 cents; and non-fiction, including biographies, histories, and diaries of travel and adventure, for 75 cents.

* * *

New books recently received in the club library include:

THE CASE OF THE BLACKEYED BLONDE by Erle S. Gardner
THE CAT'S WHISKER by H. C. Bailey
BRIDGE TO BROOKLYN by Albert Idell
THE GREEN YEARS by A. J. Cronin
HOW DEAR TO MY HEART by Emily Kimbrough
ELEGANT JOURNEY by John Selby
BLACK DAWN by Theda Kenyon
TRAGIC GROUND by Erskine Caldwell

The above list includes two first-class mysteries. Perry Mason solves the interesting CASE OF THE BLACKEYED BLONDE with the help of E. S. Gardner. Crime Club selection for the month is THE CAT'S WHISKER, another Reggie Fortune mystery in which he probes the problem of the forces stirring up dissension in an English troop town.

Best bet for the month among the novels is A. J. Cronin's THE GREEN YEARS, the story of an Irish-born orphan in a parsimonious Scottish village. A close runner-up in popularity should be BLACK DAWN, the tale of a Yankee in petticoats who captured an unwilling Rebel's love.

The library ordered two copies of FOREVER AMBER by Kathleen Winsor over a month ago, but unfortunately the publisher ran out of paper and copies will not reach us until some time in January. Efforts to purchase the book at retail book stores have proved unsuccessful; so our readers will have to wait patiently for the arrival of this highly publicized novel of love and intrigue in Restoration England.

WOULD-BE HUNTERS PLEASE NOTE

J. T. Burkett of the Land Bank Division recently took a few days' vacation to indulge in the art of hunting ducks. Arrangements were made to use a "duck blind" located about 35 miles up the river on the Missouri side. Weather reports from Minnesota and North Dakota indicated that cold weather had hit that area and that the main flight of ducks was on its way South. Alas, however, for our mighty hunter. A cold wet day is considered by duck hunters to be ideal for bagging the limit, and it was with high hopes that our friend, day after day, took his stand in the cold wet "duck blind." Three ducks made a fatal contact with his shots, but the remaining birds continued their hurried flight to the sunny South. P. S. He accidentally killed five mallards while returning from a quail hunt!

MACHINE GUN RALLY?

It was startling to have a machine gun rat-tat-tat punctuate a war bond rally speech. Hester Waters had that experience at the Quality Hill Dress factory. When she reached the point in her talk about Japanese bullets, she and her audience had all they could do to restrain themselves from falling flat to the floor when the sound effects occurred. Investigation revealed that a buzzer in the room had not been disconnected.

Hester has had many interesting experiences since she embarked on her career as a speaker about a year ago. Since that time she has been called upon to give some twenty-five speeches. She has come a long way since that first address, when her knees shook, to the time now when she can draw applause in the middle of a war bond speech.

Among the places where Hester has spoken for this Sixth War Loan Bond drive are the War Dads' meeting, the Giles and Strand theaters, four branch plants of Hall Brothers Greeting Card Company, and Quality Hill Dress factory.

Recently Hester was permitted the use of the Music Hall to practice placing her voice. She needs no public address system to make herself heard distinctly to the back of the hall.

SING A SONG

Washington has lost a dyed-in-the-wool Easterner. When "Grover" Cleveland, at the community sing, urged the audience to sing "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny" as if it wanted to go back to Washington, Sarah Schneider piped up, "But I don't want to go back. I'm having a good time here."

Besides "Anchors Aweigh," "Love's Old Sweet Song," "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean" (with appropriate gestures), and "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny," by the entire audience, the men sang, "Let me Call You Sweetheart."

Although there was little time left, and not all the members of the choral group were present, the audience insisted that the group sing. So to complete the program it presented "America the Beautiful" with Mary Jo Evans doing a solo on the second verse and an obligato for the big finish.

"SHERI" BLOSSOMS

Shakespeare did it! But then so did one of the members of the Creative Writing Class. This statement may be a bit far-fetched in comparison but we think Alverta Marston deserves a floral tribute for her endeavors. One of her compositions was published in the December "American Courier," a monthly publication of budding writers. We's plenty proud ob dat gal!
